Eye to Eye, a workshop that dissects difference, discrimination and power relationships.

Using physical theatre, role-playing, games and effective communication tools, participants will discover ways to embrace positive social change.

Inspired by Jane Elliott's 'Blue Eyes Brown Eyes' you will be encouraged to draw on your own experiences in a safe and empowering environment. Expect to be challenged, heard, to listen, have fun – oh and did we mention there'll be chocolate?

Sticks and Stones are Anna Yen, Sofia Woods, James Cunningham and Divo Sock. They share a combined passion for, and experience in, workshop facilitation, social justice and physical theatre.
