Jeff Turpin is a performer and musician. He has performed in Taiwan, Solomon Islands, Canada, Chile, USA, Europe and Brazil, and throughout Australia. He’s worked with scam, Broadway and Co, Circus Monoxide, Los Lunch Dates, Full Cream, Misfit, Phoenix Rising, and Florence Teillet. Jeff was Musical Director for CabaretRED at Woodford Folk Festival. Jeff has been a regular at the Mullum and Tasmanian Circus Festivals. He trained with Philippe Gaulier, Ian Reece, Tom Greder, Angela de Castro, Sue Broadway, Ira Seidenstein, The Creative Gym and PlayMoves. Jeff is proud of co-devising the dawn opening event of the Australian Museum.

Anna Yen is a performer and theatre maker. Anna trained in clown with Philippe Gaulier, Dell’Arte International School of Physical Theatre, Ira Seidenstein and Angela de Castro. Anna is in debase productions ‘Concerto for Harmony and Presto’, touring to the Shanghai International Arts Festival, October 2019. Anna performed in GUSH’s award-winning “Monstera”. She’s Dumpling Lamington in the Playful Engagement Project. As “Grandma Clown” she’s enlivened many events. With Turpin, Yen performed “Hong Kong Detectives” for BrisAsia Festival, and “The Case of All Things” in Taiwan. Anna Yen teaches widely for schools, communities, universities, companies, festivals and solo artists. Yen is the recipient of a Churchill Fellowship, Matilda Award, and, with The Lamingtons /WMB/Griffith University, a Creative Partnerships Art and Health Award (Qld). www.playmoves.org

“Insuring failure”...Yes, we do mean to spell it this way!
